PLAYER DRAFT

All players at each playing level in MJBL will be placed into a draft pool and players will be selected by coaches in an alternating draft process. For example, a playing level has a total of 48 players and 4 coaches. Each coach will take a turn selecting one player until all 48 players have been selected. Consideration will be given to siblings wishing to be on the same team. Requests for specific coaches will not be honored. Players are strongly encouraged to attend at least 1 of the 2 player evaluations to be held in February (refer to the Clinic and Evaluation Sheet) as coaches will be present to evaluate player abilities.

MYERSVILLE BASEBALL / TRI-COUNTY BASEBALL / BABE RUTH BASEBALL BYLAWS

MYERSVILLE JUNIOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

2012 Levels of Play

For the 2012 baseball season, Myersville Baseball, in coordination with Tri-County Baseball, will be utilizing the Cal Ripken Baseball age groups for baseball. This allows kids to play at a level based more comfort/ability rather than on a specific age level. Below is a brief description of each playing level.

T-Ball

- Part of Tri-County Baseball with games against Middletown and Braddock Heights
- Players must be 4 years old BY May 1 of the current year to be eligible to play
- Beginning level of play with simple coach pitch and use of a hitting tee
- All players bat and play the field in every inning of every game

Machine Pitch

- Part of Tri-County Baseball with games against other Frederick County teams
- Recommended players are older 6 year olds, 7 & 8 year olds
- Use of a pitching machine placed 46' from home plate pitching at 40mph
- No leading and no stealing
- 11 players on the field with use of a second base helper
- All players bat and required field playing time is that no player shall sit on the bench for more than one consecutive inning; in those games in which the mercy rule comes into play, coaches will make the effort to even out playing time in the next game

Minors

- Part of Tri-County Baseball with games against other Frederick County teams
- Recommended Players are 9 & 10 year olds and younger 11 year olds
- Player pitching from 46' mound with 60' bases
- No leading, can steal once the ball crosses home plate
- 9 players on the field
- All players bat and required field playing time is that no player shall sit on the bench for more than one consecutive inning; in those games in which the mercy rule comes into play, coaches will make the effort to even out playing time in the next game. At the Minors level, coaches are afforded more flexibility with field playing time; coaches may reduce a player's playing time for disciplinary reasons (e.g., behavior, attendance, lack of effort, unwillingness to listen or participate, etc.)

Majors

- Part of Tri-County Baseball with games against other Frederick County teams
- Based on player ability, recommended players are older 10 year olds, 11 & 12 year olds
- Player pitching from 50' mound with 70' bases
- 9 players on the field with leadoff and stealing
- All players bat and required field playing time is that no player shall sit on the bench for more than one consecutive inning; in those games in which the mercy rule comes into play, coaches will make the effort to even out playing time in the next game. At the Majors playing level, coaches are afforded more flexibility with field playing time; coaches may reduce a player's playing time for disciplinary reasons (e.g., behavior, attendance, lack of effort, unwillingness to listen or participate, etc.)

As a reminder, metal spikes (cleats) and big barrel bats are not allowed at the Rookie, Minors, and Majors levels of play.

The chart below is a general guideline showing the playing levels and recommended age levels.

Playing Level	4 Year Old	5 Year Old	6 Year Old	7 Year Old	8 Year Old	9 Year Old	10 Year Old	11 Year Old	12 Year Old
Majors	No	No	No	No	No	Elite*	Yes	Yes	Yes

* An Elite player is defined as a player whose playing skills are advanced for their age and may be able to play at a higher playing level of baseball. This player is welcome to attend the higher playing level evaluation. Based on the evaluation, the player will either remain at the older playing level or will simply move to the appropriate playing level. For example, an Elite 9 year old attends the Majors evaluation and based on that player's evaluation, they are not selected to play at the Majors, then they will simply play at the Minor playing level.

Frederick County Babe Ruth Baseball

For ages 13 and older, Myersville Baseball participates in Frederick County Babe Ruth Baseball. Below are the playing levels with recommended playing ages.
